I can see the stars melting away
A telescope foretold our eternity
As I stood by the window
Turning around to face you
Turning around to tell you

I told you so, the stars are melting away
And it's my place to say,
Today, this space will never be the same
For two of a kind

I can see the strings of fate falling apart
And I can see the wings of heaven
Shedding their feathers
In unison, the angels are
Turning around to face you
Turning around to show you

So heed the stars, their light will leave us in the dark
In the depths of our hearts
A time when I was watching from afar
Over two of a kind

You saw, the stars are melting away
And it's my place to say,
Today, our lives will never be the same
We were two of a kind
